

Sinclair Broadcasting has chosen to require their stations to air the anti-Kerry documentary, "Stolen Honour," two weeks prior to the November national election. Even if this film is later judged to be a political ad and therefore falls into the equal-time law, the damage will be done.

Please intervene, or request that the courts intervene, before a one-sided slant on this valiant presidential candidate, John Kerry, is offered to the American public in the name of entertainment.